EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST POSITION DESCRIPTION

POSITION:	Swan Hill Youth Arts Festival (YAF) Ambassador 2020
RESPONSIBLE TO:	YAF Board (SHRCC and SHDH)
LOCATION:	Various
TIMES AND DAYS REQUIRED:	Start date to be decided / regular meetings with committee and YAF board (approximately eight 1-2 hour meetings)
SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS:	Communication and Leadership skills

1. Overview of Role:

The Swan Hill Youth Arts Festival (YAF) was first held in 2014 to celebrate and enrich the talent of young people in our community. Supported by both Swan Hill Rural City Council and Swan Hill District Health, YAF gives young people the opportunity to be affirmed, encouraged and appreciated as talented young people in the arts. The YAF Ambassador is the face of the festival, aged between 16 and 25 and will help to lift the profile of young local artists and performers in their community. We are looking for someone who is highly motivated, has good time management skills, are flexible and live locally. The YAF ambassador will have a strong sense of community and be willing to participate with local partners.

For more info, please contact Will Burns by email will.burns@swanhill.vic.gov.au or by phone on 0419 288 365.

2. Responsibilities:

- Organise and facilitate the Youth Arts Festival with the help of the YAF committee
- Promote the Youth Arts Festival in schools and community
- Communicate with all young people involved on the YAF committee
- Report all conversations and concerns about the festival to the YAF Board
- Assist in reviewing the event and providing suggestions for improving YAF 2019
- Work in cohesion with local partners

3. What You Will Learn:

- Enhanced leadership skills
- Experience in Project Management
- Learn to facilitate group discussions and manage meetings
- Public speaking opportunities
